

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

ARNULFO REYES-GARZA,

Defendant.

CASE NO. CR15-126-JLR

DETENTION ORDER

Offense charged: Distribution of Heroin

Date of Detention Hearing: April 29, 2015.

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

1. Defendant has no real ties to the Seattle area. He has been homeless since 2007, has no work history to speak of and no source of income other than food stamp benefits. He is an active heroin and cocaine user. His criminal history includes a number of failures to appear,

1 new criminal law violations while on court supervision, revocation of supervision, and failures to
2 report. He has an active warrant issued by state DOC for failure to report upon release from 3 custody.

4 2. Defendant poses a risk of nonappearance due to lack of ties to the state, no release
5 address, and numerous failures to appear as well as an active warrant. Defendant poses a risk of 6 danger due to criminal history, unaddressed substance abuse and mental health issues, and a
7 history of failing to comply with court orders.

8 3. There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will 9 reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the 10 danger to other persons or the community.

11 It is therefore ORDERED:

12 1. Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney
13 General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from 14 persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

15 2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;

16 3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person
17 in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the 18 defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with 19 a court proceeding; and
